Kentucky League for Nursing 2015 Annual Nurse Educator Conference in Louisville, KY.

We hope you are planning to join us this May for our 2015 Annual Nurse Educator Conference in the beautiful city of Louisville, KY! The conference last year was a great success and those who attended reported they thoroughly enjoyed the new location! The conference will again be held at the Crowne Plaza which offers luxurious sound proof rooms, an indoor pool, on-site restaurant, and free shuttle service to many nearby Louisville attractions. (Shuttle runs any place within three miles of the hotel). Area attractions include the Louisville Zoo and the Kentucky Derby Museum, among many other exciting options. You will hear from our wonderful keynote speaker, several break-out educational sessions, and exciting poster presentations. In the evenings, you will have the option of visiting the many attractions in the area and/or take advantage of some evening activities the League has planned for our attendees! Want to stay in and relax? No problem!! Relax poolside and mingle with other attendees, meet new friends or catch up on some much needed rest in your luxurious room!!

A Message from Nurse Tim

Flipping Successfully = Bringing Clinical To Class with NurseTim

Student success, NCLEX pass rates, Faculty workload. These areas of education are all crucial pieces of the same puzzle. This year, the Kentucky League for Nursing will have Dr. Tim Bristol guide us through one of the most interactive workshops faculty have ever experienced. The process of flipping the classroom in nursing education necessitates bringing clinical to class. By building reality into every class, lab, and simulation, faculty are able to help students build higher order thinking skills. These skills are the very ones needed to not only pass NCLEX but also become a successful nurse. Using educational innovations that include 3x5 Index Cards, music, games, and much more, the faculty are able to transform any lecture hall, classroom, or lab, into a learning experience that will help students learn how to learn.

Conference Breakout Sessions!

We are excited to provide many break out sessions once again this year. Enjoy many sessions presented by educators related to areas of concern faced by Nurse Educators today!

We will also have several poster presenters who promise to have interesting displays to share with us and to enlighten us!

This year we also have students returning to present posters! This was a hit last year and it was requested that we include more students this year, so we have done so. We know you will enjoy hearing what students have to say!

We look forward to seeing—and learning with you—in Louisville!

Looking for Involvement Opportunities in an Organization? Join the KLN!!

There are many opportunities available for you to become involved with the Kentucky League for Nursing:

Each year we will be needing volunteers for peer reviewers! Our peer reviewers will review podium and poster abstracts submitted to the League for our Annual Nurse Educator Conference. The reviewer will provide their professional opinion regarding the content being submitted for presentation.

If you are looking for ways to utilize your expertise while at the same time giving back, consider opportunities for volunteering with the KLN.

A special thank you to our May 2015 abstract peer reviewers: Carole Mattingly, Karla Uhde, Ann Lyons and Nikole Hicks!

The KLN invites student nurses to present at each annual conference! If your nursing students are involved in completing special projects or research, please encourage them to submit a poster presentation proposal to present at our annual conference! What a wonderful opportunity to get your students recognized and provide them a wonderful opportunity to be involved with the KLN!

KLN KORNER!!!

There certainly has been a lot happening with the KLN. This past year, the location of the conference was changed to Louisville. It was a great success! A new website is up and running and has been a great success as well!

These pale in comparison to the biggest success we have experienced— involvement from you!! It has been a delight to see the response of KLN members to serve! Together, we can all work to move the League forward!

Continue to monitor the Newsletter and the Website for service opportunities. We look forward to hearing from you!
