FALL CNE COURSE

Keynote Speaker: Judith Halstead,
PhD, RN, CNE, ANEF,
FAAN | PROFESSOR EMERITA

Judith A. Halstead is a professor emerita at Indiana University School of Nursing and an independent nursing education consultant. She currently is an adjunct clinical professor for the University of Florida School of Nursing. Previously she was the founding executive director of the National League for Nursing Commission for Nursing Education Accreditation in Washington, DC, a position she held from 2014-2021. Dr. Halstead has over forty years of experience in nursing education with expertise in online education, nurse educator competencies, accreditation, and program evaluation. She is co-editor of the award winning and widely referenced book on nursing education, Teaching in Nursing: A Guide for Faculty, now in its 7th edition. She served as the president of the National League for Nursing from 2011-2013. Dr. Halstead is the recipient of numerous awards and honors including the Sigma Theta Tau International Elizabeth Russell Belford Excellence in Education Award, the Indiana University School of Nursing Top 100 Legacy Leaders Award, and an Indiana University Bicentennial Medal of Honor recipient. She is a fellow in the NLN Academy of Nursing Education and the American Academy of Nursing.

Course Title:

Preparing for the NLN CNE® Examination

Course Description:

This interactive workshop is designed to help academic nurse educators assess their readiness and prepare to take the NLN Certified Nurse Educator (CNE®) examination. The workshop includes a review of each of the 6 CNE test category areas and the associated nurse educator competencies. The detailed test blueprint will be reviewed and strategies for taking the exam discussed. Opportunities to take practice exam questions will also be provided.

Objectives:

1. Discuss the implications of obtaining academic nurse educator certification for nursing faculty.
2. Identify strategies and resources for preparing to take the NLN CNE® examination.
3. Analyze the detailed NLN CNE® test blueprint to facilitate preparation for the examination.
4. Review the 6 NLN CNE® test categories and the major concepts associated with each nurse educator competency.
