20th ANNUAL NURSE EDUCATOR CONFERENCE

May 21-22, 2024

Holiday Inn East
Hurstbourne
Louisville, KY

Speaker May 21

Dr. Dodie Serafini, MSN, PHD, RN, CNE. Dr. Serafini entered her professional nursing career as a licensed practical nurse. Over the next 20 years she progressed through her academic journey. Her MSN is focused on nursing education and her Ph.D. is in Educational Leadership. She holds the NLN certification as a nurse educator. Her topic will be: “Establishing Assessments to Measure Clinical Judgement”

Speakers May 22

Kelly Jenkins, MSN, RN, NE-BC. Kelly is the Executive Director of the KBN, holding more than 31 years of nursing experience, including a variety of nursing roles in acute care. Throughout her career, she has worked as an intensive care staff nurse, nurse educator, assistant director of nursing, director of critical care services, director of nursing, director of case management, quality director, and a corporate compliance officer. Kelly has also served on advisory boards for both health careers at her local high school, as well as the nearby community college nursing program. She has a passion for working collaboratively to drive change as a means of influencing quality outcomes for the constituents of the Commonwealth. Kelly also served as a KBN Board member for almost 8 years, ending her last term in the position of Board President.

Jason Schwartz, MS. Jason A. Schwartz offers 25 years of experience in high-stakes testing and a reputation for innovation, leadership, and trust. Jason is the Director of Outreach at NCSBN where one of his primary roles is the sharing of accurate and useful information with stakeholders regarding NCSBN examinations, services, and other offerings. Prior to joining NCSBN in 2019, Jason spent 10 years with Pearson VUE supporting the NCLEX and other NCSBN programs in various roles at the executive level.

William Lanman, RN, MSN A Registered Nurse since 1999, Will Lanman has earned BSN and MSN degrees from Bellarmine University, and has a background in Critical Care Nursing, Academic and Clinical Nursing Education, and Nursing Leadership. Will served as a staff nurse in multiple critical care settings, and as Critical Care Clinical Educator for Norton Hospital prior to joining the Norton Healthcare Institute for Education and Development, designated by the National League for Nursing as a Center of Excellence in Nursing Education, in 2010. First serving as System Nurse Educator, Will now leads Norton Healthcare’s system nursing education strategy as Nurse Manager, Center for System Nursing and Ancillary Education.

Will has a background in academic education, having taught numerous didactic, clinical, and lab courses in former roles as full-time and adjunct faculty for Galen College of Nursing, and adjunct faculty for Indiana University Southeast

CONFERENCE TITLE

“ESTABLISHING ASSESSMENTS TO MEASURE CLINICAL JUDGEMENT”

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

Nursing education supports articulation pathways that promote progression to licensure and advance the attainment of professional credentials. The innovative efforts to support the advancement of nursing education are most evident in the offerings of baccalaureate completion programs. The continued exploration of transferable knowledge, skills, and attitudes that can accelerate nurses into professional practice is worthy of consideration. Reimagining pathways to professional practice will be the focal point of the presentation and discussions.

Objectives:

1. Define professional competence.
2. Formulate strategies to evaluate competence.
3. Construct an academic progression model to reduce the duplication of academic content.
4. Examine assessment methods to validate experiential learning.

Who Should Attend?

This conference is designed for all nurses with an interest in the future of nursing education.
