CONFERENCE TITLE

"Clinical Judgment for Every Nurse,
Every Student, and Every Leader
Everyday"

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

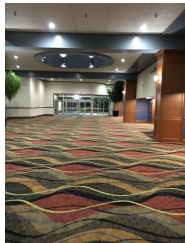

Practice readiness through clinical judgment formation has never been more crucial for nursing students. We know that discharge planning begins on admission. That is why starting with day one of nursing school, we help students learn from a patient care perspective of safety. This hands-on workshop will give you firsthand experience with multiple strategies that can be used every hour of every lecture in the nursing curriculum. You will explore practice readiness through the lens of everything that you teach.

Objectives:

1. Identify the need for practice readiness development in every course in the nursing curriculum.
2. Create a learning activity for use with students this semester.
3. Analyze learning activities for components crucial to development of clinical judgment.
