Presidents Message

Hello Nurse Educators,

As the leaves change and the season shifts, we're delighted to welcome you to this edition of our Kentucky League for Nursing Education Newsletter. Autumn is a time of reflection, growth, and renewed energy, and we hope this edition brings you inspiration and valuable resources to support your important work.

Your dedication to educating and guiding future nurses is a cornerstone of healthcare excellence. We're thrilled to connect with you and share valuable insights, updates, announcements, and resources that are tailored to your vital role in shaping the future of healthcare.

As always, thank you for your hard work, compassion, and unwavering commitment to the future of nursing. We hope this newsletter fills your fall with fresh insights, motivation, and a sense of connection. Happy Fall and Winter!

Respectfully,
 Neena W. Jones
 KLN President
